LIFE WITHOUT HEALTH IS LIVING DEATH,

This remarkable compound, the latest discovery of modern times, is without equal in all cases of dissective nerve and brain power, whether induced by worry, overwork, dissipation, or other influences. Sleeplessness, palpitation, defective circulation, nervous dyspeptia, tie or neuralgis, low spirits, mental and bodily prostration, want of confidence, general debility, premature decay of descioney of the vital forces, loss of vitality, haratsing dreams, restessness that can settle to bething, irritability of temper, female complaints, hysteria, backache, bearing down sensations, wasting diseases, consumption, night swedts, muddy, high-coldered water, a.c., are all so many different phases of brain and nerve wreckage and exhaustion, the cause of by far the greater portion of the misery, ill-health, and despondency by which we are confronted on every hand, that can only be successfully combated by the use of this wonderful and highly scientific preparation, drawing up the system generally, it gives tone to the exhausted nerves, arrests all weakening weating discharges, restores the failing energies, and imparts new life and vigour to those who had so recently seemed played out, used up and valueless. Hottles Price 2s, 36.

Never before was there anything like it, nor can its marvellous properties ever be equalled in all cases of pooruses, imputity, or other imperfection of the blood from whatever cause arising. Its sooner is it imblied into the system then it permeates and penetrates to the minutest capitaties, overcoming and expelling disease, whereavever and in whatsoever form met with; removing all blotches, pimples, scarri, scarry, acrolulous and glandular swellings, discolorations, roughness and insightly patches, its effects are almost magical in the treatment of goot, rheumatism, existing, imbago, pains and awellings of the joints, discharges, blood poison eccema, leves, provises, bad legs, bad breasts, abscrees, plears, wounds, sores, goline or Derbyshire neck, it improves the general health, and quickly removes long standing broachids, asthma, and hacking, threaters beganning cours, too often the brecurror of consumption. INDIAN REGIMENTS IN CHINA

Life in Hongkong.

We think we can discern the fine Roman hand of an English bandmaster who was once in Hongkong with a Rajput regiment i n an article which we find in The Journal of Calcutta, though it is signed, "An Old Trooper." We take the following must leave their belongings behind, and the mystic words which are, to some, pleasing, to others, the reverse. The young emberking for Field Service. Yes, forsooth, subaltern, or the un-married Captain in the brass-hats make this the excuss for the Indian Army, naturally likes to see as much of the world as possible. His topes covers his 'all,' and the fag and worry of packing, bill paying, and moving, does not hit him like it does his brother officer the Benedict, or more likely this officer's memsahib. So the younger officers look forward to the move. They hear that Hongkong has a club-two in fact; that there is a good polo ground, and that hockey and in half a house, the rent for which the taxcricket can be had galore. The Penedicts who are well off count the extra days' they will be further from home-with views of Privileged Leave ahead-and wonder what day will be mail day! will be expensive, and some thank the Lord and Simla for the off-chance of get ting away from sundry bills and dons of many castes and bues. So, with more or less patience, or phiegm, the mess is closed kit is packed and the troop train is off and subsequently the good ship Dufferin slowly moves from the sandy shores Karachi, amidst the chestauty strains of Auld Long Syns, the speeders promptly-nnless a stray "engaged" is left behind-forgetting the old loves, to call upon-the new ones, "vice those sailed to China. The pretty club, the exviz., getting settled down in the cabins, and the nice greetings of the officers of the Poor women, poor little butches !" ship. These are notoriously popular, as their manners are sailor-like, from the captain and "The First," to the junior ongineers, and assumption their several individualities, as, it so eften-does among the Juniors in the Sister Service. So the Colonel and officers soon fraternize, and even that usually most unfortunate and neglected of beings, the British Bandmaster, who is "neither fish, or fowl, or good red herring " as the .naying is, gets a hearty "good morning" from the white clad, smart ship's officers.

THE INDIAN VIEW.

How about the Sepoys! How do the Jemadars and Subardars like this move to-China? Well, in one word they don't The Indian does not like to leave the land of his foreboars at any time-unless under orders for active service, then, to blazes with his mother, his wife, and his homebut, when it comes to going to a country where they know (already they do in their wonderful way) milk is very, very expensive, where the moorghee costs a dib' a piece, and, where, in the typhson season, you may be roused out of bed through your roof sailing away, not to mention kit damaged by rain and exposure; the Fepoy loves not the move at all. Add'te this the inhuman and immoral, order that all married men-native officers and menmy readers will grasp the fact that nam-cut "Under orders for Hongkong." So run 'is carried out by all who can get out of it, before answering at the last roll call ere > men taking their families with them. Because the native regiment is described as going on Field Service - it differs not a jot from service in the Frontier cantonment -the poor women are left behind with their families. The British married soldier on the strength brings his family, and is quartered pay r pays at the rate of rupees 60 to 70 a month, in houses similar to those occupied across the street by captains of ships, bank clerks and hoc genus omne. Close to the barracks are the next one the rents of which is ten rupees per flat per month, and six to eight sepoys' families could be comfortably SATURDAY, April 20th. housed for each British soldier. Where does the Indian come in ? Why is he thus badly treated? This is one of the explanations why the L. A. recruiting officers cannot get men. Another I touch upon later. There is no bazzar where gup cin be enjoyed, and if he does not play hockey, falls back upon drink which is good and cheap. Hung Chong, the cellent library, the purposeless sermons portly Chinese bazaar wouldh, charges but a of the padre, the very, very dusty rail. rupes for a quart bottle of square face, and way journey to Lahore, or Quetta; the the same for rum. So idleness and banishdances, and the good times had, are ment oft leads to the married senoy soon forgotten by the late occupants of the spending hardesmod rupees, including his Native Lines, midst new surroundings, extra foreign service pay, in drink and opium, instead of sending it to his family-

There is no caste question with a Chinese woman, and some are very pretty, and al are clean, so there are other ways of spending money too. Gambling is the life and soul of the Chinaman, and Fan Tan L played, quietly, in many a back room close to barracks. With want of interest shown by his superiors, the sepoy can galop to penury quickly in China. THE BREAKPAST TABLE.

So far as solids are concernel, the English lady will find that milk (1 pint) costs 3 annas, a healthy fowl one rupeer beef 5 annas a cutty (pound and quarter) mutton 10 to 12 annes a catty, butter rupeo a pound. And what can a sepoy do if he wants to puy dad or a moorghie at these prices ! Goats are sold for mixty rupees each! The European has to pay from 15 to 25 rupees for a house boy (bearer), never less than 15; a cook rups to dollars for rupeer, generally 25, and he [4 does your marketing ! As I have said, the Chinose servant in street a head wof your Indian, and as there is no casta both boy and amah (ayah) are most useful in a sick room, and in a small family."

Rent is awful . a flat at 80 rupees .. a house for 100 to 150 1 These data give a line in anticipation as to living expenses, for white and sepoys, so far as eating is concerned. Only in the amnil shops can climp food be hought, and that is 'prime' cut, cliow (dog), healthy rate, or stinky saited fish. Vegetables are chesp and good, but green stuff should be carefully boiled era served up. THE HARBOUR pont Groon Island, the pretty red and little hills proving a pictureeque contract to the black-painted merican Liners, and dirty, routy-sided tramps or carpo boats. As we attant in, be tring from Hangkong side to our borth at Kowloop, we Iwas a Macao boat loaded with Chinese passengers, on our port side, and its flag dips a salute. All eyes are, however, on the four alibe coloured Levisthans at anchor near the Admiral's ship the old white-bulled Tamar. These are the guardians of the British Far East, slways with one fire going; like big watch dogs, asleep with one eye open. They are a flag ship. a first class crui or, a second class, and a third class; on each, smoke lazily issues from one of the huge fannels, the others are still. The pratty bungalows dotted below the Peak top, and the mountain railway have just got interesting, when round we go and turn into Kowloon proper. Faw people, except those belonging to the garrison, a o there, and these can be readily noticed, being in kbaki. Hongkong is a husiness centre, and only in the hotel hars from 12 to a.m. can clurks, taipana (hosses), or shop awistants, slip away for a matution! sandwich and peg, THE ARRIVAL The G.vernor's A.-D.-C., in Indien cavalry uniform, is the first to confe on board, then comes the G. O. C., himself an Indian voterna indeed, with his nice, delayed by the expensive but necessary ferry-boat having to make a wide deviation from the usual straight line just af er leaving the Hongkong side, through a Jupinese mail boat's unloward and rapid apprench from the north. Soon, eards having been, left, those officers return to the other side of the water, the pilot shakes hands with "the First," and nodding adieur to others, leaves the ship to the disombarkation officers, the unfortunate regimental Quarter-Master, the Adjutant and the Barrack-master and staff. The ladies have had time by now to stare at Mrs Hi Ling, washerwo' ar, and at Ho Chu g, 'velly good, wash' man me, and stare at the tro sers of the first named, for the women in China wea trows and not skirts, and score on the grounds of health and economy, too. My Kan do-first chop-lookee see LER and SHAFTING Suitable for says the clean Chinese woman, and she shows a "chit" or "chits" from former employers. And so on. A Native In fantry band plays vigorously on shore. welcoming, gladly welcoming, the relievi regiment, while the new airivals are on fatigue, and subsequently to the tune of "Now, we shan't be long," march up Haiphong read, leading the new-comers to euphoniously bermed berracks; but really disgraceful shelters for soldiers. Draug' ty and dark in wint r; unbeamble in sun mer. Of course, Society has its obligations but there is no question of obligation in 'Sassiely' here. The soldier officer will find himself more than welcome; it is for aim subsequently to discriminate. Hongkong is a sort of Bath-cum-Margate cam-Scarbore cum-Glasgow-cum Peckham. has its cliques, such a lot of them. Snobbishness exults and flourishes, like unto the seed of the Scottish thistle. To is lucre, filthy lucre, that wins popularity and standing, except among the Teutons, in this Laverpool of the Ear Past Simla, Pindi, Agra, Poons, or Kimberley in its worst days cannot equal this city for its fenriul snobocracy. They not only dearly love a Lord, but anyone with cash. The most flag ant bounder, female or male, car command an entree anywhere except it be among the Germans, or Portuguese. The Teuton circle is a wide one, and comprises some very big Firms; their clab is hy far the largest and finest East of Madras while their hospitality is proverbial. And the humblest clerk in Hardhead and Co.'r office, is a welcome among their clubmen. as a taipan is. Their dances are always enjoyable, and their cuising unappreachable. Hoh! I say to our netural onemies sur la rue commerciale. For the Indian Army officer who goes in for any branch of sport Hongkong is undoubtedly delightful. Moreover the Chinese "Boy" is the best servant east of Naples. He can join the Kowloon C.C. and play on his side of the water-he won' mix with the supposed best club, thoughand have a most sporting season with them ; he, of course, being an officer, can join the Hongkong C.C., but he needn't think that he'll be played unless he car bat, keep wicket, or bowl devilish well Hongkong draws the line at that. There there is the Craigengowan C.C. which is fed by both Portuguese and Europeans. and has the famous, and much liked family of Lammerts to 'school' it. The drawback to this club, is, however, the long way to go to get to it's nice ground. He can row, and belong to the Victoria Recreation Club, guided again by a Lammgrt over the troubled waters of bad wenther, late subscriptions, etc. The United Services' Club has on the Kowloon side of the water a good bookey ground, and, of course, a picked team. In it's ranks he will have opportunities of getting broken shins from hardy sailors off the menof war; he will nicet Gunners, red conts, and all sorts, and there is a big Cup for Native Army teams to go in for. If a man is energetic enough to keep up football. he enn play Association for Kowloon Club-- nico fellows, and ripping good men. Kowloon Club, too, has a fine opining for exploiters of the tender game, and formen worthy of the hardest of 'serves.' The tennis courts here are open to ladies as well, if-well you soo some of the Indies may be in business, and their hubbics may, too, den't you know. We have not yet arrived at the time when women will sink the little differences of status that men de and play friendly cames with their sisters by nature, though not sisters by lack of run'e, 'a man's a man for a' that,' says Burns - what of women ?

The climate of Hongkong is clammy in summer, bitterly cold in winter, but in autumn it is delightful. Pleasant trips can re taken to Canton and to Macao - n publica Chinese town in possession of the Portuguese-by river steamers.

The pany races, herking back to spirt, ard grow, and the Durby Meeting, which is a three days' affair, is a succession of purely legitimete efforts of everyone owning cracks, or crocks, to get first past the past. Everyone "up" must be an amat or. or gentleman jock. The race course is a hig circle, and has not lad turns and in about a mile and a half gound. The trame. finely managed, take the sportamen ban; up to the untrance of the Grand Stand The Stands are wall gut up, and the boxes for the Totalisator (and Tantalization I) are big enough for the quenes of backers. Much money can be won by backing certain riders one; two, three : always reserving the fact that the pony moves in the prelimit het er than others, but on the whole, beck the Form and long the ponish to tel sleting under them. Golf is played on the ground finide the course, and beres on finish adjacent are the pitches of perty

der Boar Archery.

Burgess' Endurance and Vitality—

It is the big success, the great deed itself, that proves the wisdom of Burgess in employing Phosferine to provide the endurance and energy. which enabled him to swim the Channel. To Phosferine the mighty Yorkshireman owes it that he has achieved more than any other living man, for on this historic occasion he used Phosferine to prepare for his" daring and thrilling 23 hours' swim!" Comparing his triumph with his previous failures, Burgess declares that the nulimited nerve force derived from Phosferine furnished the endurance to finish his swim successfully this time. Obviously Phosferine was the making of Burgess' great deed, and alike with other innumerable victors who have achieved renown by the invigorating aid of Phosferine, he frankly declares that Phosferine alone provides the force and vitality necessary for continuous mental and physical exertion.

How he made success sure.

Mr. T. W. Burgess, 30, Dover Road, Walmer, Deal, writes:-"I am very pleased to place on record my keen appreciation of Phosferine as a nerve and muscle tonic of the highest order. I have proved from experience the unfailing efficacy of this admirable remedy, and in preparing for this special demand upon my energies, it has been of incalculable benefit to me, and its recuperative effects immediately after my successful Channel Swim, were excellent. Its sustaining and, strengthening properties are very marked, and for nervous breakdown and feats of physical endurance I consider Phosferine is indispensable."

NO RICH PRESIDENTS.

It is a great pity to have the Lincoln anniversary mi used by unfounded contraste between his time and ours, charges of the political decadence of the people and abourdwealth. The statement that "we would in all likelihood regard it as a reflection on our nation to soluct for our President s man as poor as Lincoln was wholly without excuse. Lawyers' fees were smaller then. than now, but so were most other forms of compensation. Mr Lincoln was a successful lawyer, engaged in some large casus, and he was no pauper even if it may have been convenient for him to borrow some roady money at the time of his inauguration. Mr Taft was born to a competence, but not a great fortune. His wife is understood to have had some fortune, but he practiced his profession until he went on the bench, since which time he has genorally been in receipt of an official salary, Mr Roosevelt, is nearly if not quite the only president who never carned his own laving. He was born to something better than a competence, and he has neve, practiced a profession or carried or business. He has written a good dealand probably made some money by his books. He has also held office, but en moderate salaries until elected Governor for New York. Mr McKin'ey had very little except his congressional salary until elected president. Mr Harrison was long at the head of the Indiana bar, but when he died his estate was little more than $100,000, and probably a good deal of this was acquired after be retired from the presidency, when some valuable cases came to him, as they are apt to come to a lawyer who had been conspicuous in public life. For example, it is said that Governor Black of New York has made a million dollars out of his profession since he retired from office.

Mr Cleveland was a lawyer in moderate practice, and needed the salary which was Cheap Rental. paid to him for several years as a trustee of the Equitable Company. I is wife had a moderate fortune, but he did not marry until after his inauguration. Mr Hayes inherited a large fortune, but not until after he became President, General Grant didn't have a cont except his sulary and his

Unquestionably the p stession of a great fortune would be regarded to-day as disqualifying a man ofor the Presidential nomination, though he might be nominated for Vice-president with the expectation. cynically expressed by senator Ingalls, that he would pay a large part of the campaign HIRST Class Central accommodation, ехрепасы.

Nor is it true that Mr Lincoln was elected by the people in any sense different from that in which a president will be elected by he people this year. It is grotesquely untrue that "then the people governed themselves ; now we are largely ruled, often die tated to," except in so fur as present-day issues fail to interest the people enough to arouse them to action. The republic has not changed; the people are not the victims of an oligarchy or plutocracy or anything except their own indifference. When the issues were slavery and the integrity of the nation people felt intensely and acted energetically. The tariff and conservation and corporations do not move the people as the issues of fifty or sixty years ago did, and they are too apt to leave matters to the professional politicians. But there First floor. were plenty of those in Lincoln's time and some of them were no better than those that we have to deal with-Philadelphia Record:

In the laws of the twelve tables, written in Rome 450 B.C., whilst it is expressly forbidden to bury gold ornaments with bodies, a special exception is made for gold Beinbridg with which the teeth may perchance he bound together. The Museum of Pore Julius, at Rome, contains a gold cap; made of two small plates of gold stamped out to represent rather closely a middle lower incisor, and these two places soldered together to form the crown of a tooth. The transplantation of teeth, especially from the mouths of slaves into those o their mistresses, seems, to have been practised rather commonly in the early days, of the Rowan Empire. The Romans had a number of different kinds of dentifrices, and took great care their tooth.

BHAN and TAMERLANE held their independence as a very sacred thing; and so long as they retained the ancient military organization bequeathed to them by their fighting forebears, they were the terror and constant fear of the Chinese empire. But with the advent of the debased form of Buddhism known as Lamaism, they put off their ferocious military manners and it is no exaggeration to say that threequarters of the men assumed the found in the streets of the Colony.... yellow robe and took on monastic vows. We need not linger over the causes for this very startling change in national characteristics. But to it was undoubtedly due the easy conquest which the early monarchs of the Ta Ching, or Manchu dynasty, were able to effect once they could settle down to the task of consolidating their newly-won empire. Gradually they forced upon the Mongolians an alien and distinctive system civil and military policy and the dependency became a mere satrapy of the Middle Kingdom. We see, however, in the recent, declaration of independence by the Mongolians the 9.15 p.m .- 'The King's Bride' by Bandmasterful hand of Russia. CORRESPONDENCE.

KAIRING MINES:

(To the Editor of the "CHINA MARL.) Sir-One of your Chinese cable reports yesterday credits Yuan Hak Ting, Pre sident's Yuan's son, with the appointment as director of the Kaiping " and " Lamchow Mines. To the ordinary reader. current events in China, this item of nev possesses to more than passing interest But to those who have closely followed the navelopment of haipings from the days the Boxer trouble, rather more than ten years ago, to the native report is attached more than transient significance.

The phoenix-like rising of Kaiping from the dead sahes of the Boxe emeute into the Anglo Belge syndicate which converted the Kaiping Mining Go. into the present day Chinese Engineering and Mining Co., Ltd., with its vast rami fications of business, is matter of recent history. The subsequent futile efforts of Delegate Chang You mao in the Courts of Law in England to wrest the Company from British control and management when the "Nationalisation" fad permeated Chinese minds but a few years back, was another link in the chain of evidence that went to prove the China for the Chinese policy that dominated the old regime."

How far the accuracy of the above Chinese report is to be relied upon may ! inferred from a paragraph appearing your own columns which stated that Yuan Shicksi and the British Minister at Poking had, on the 26th ult., concluded a preliminary agreement whereby the two Mines the Kaiping and the Lamchow-would be amalgamated.

As is "well" known, the Kaiping Mines (as the property of the Chinese Engineering and Mining Co., Ld., is spoken of by the Chinese) are owned by the British Company; and the Lamchow Mines claim Chinese ownership. The latter, backed it is reported, by foreign capital, carried on their operations in opposition to the British Company, and in spite of their con siderably smaller capacity were competitor in the northern market with their identical coal at lower prices.

That such competition and a largely increased demand have stimulated the British Company to augment their output and saies, the published official statistics furnish ample evidence, as th following figures show : -

1912 Output Sales Output Sales 27,387 27,946 32,481 124,340 26,210 30,357 32,847 28,848 24,275 33,210 33,108 24,775 9.275 19,215 34,246 36,169 4,680 33,843 8,104 13,286 29 501 39,297 22,684 7,034 27,492 25,845 18,496 180 27,990 1st March 27,472 29,518 15,775 27,68 28,334 28,422 24,742 26,492

year, therefore, the mines have yielder 50,000 tons more of coal than the corre sponding period in 1911, and have sold about 83,000 tons in excess of last year's first quarterly total, or a percentage in creased sale equivalent to 21.80. The producing capacity of the Lines Mines on of the three worked by the Chinese En gineering Co. with its splendid electric equipment will be found equal to any demands the Northern market is likely to make on the coalfields comprised within

A fusion of interest of the two competing companies has been talked about now for some time. It is not at all improbable that your earlier report to the effect that preliminary negotiations have been satisfactorily reached, between representatives of the British and the Chinese concern possesses more substance in fact than that guarter, 32 of your vernacular contemporary assigning Brushwood Boy, three quarters, 35. to Youn Hak Ting the impostant office of 1.12, 1.42.2; last quarter 30.3 director of the smalgamated concerns.

Sharebolders in China and in London will surely make their voices heard if one the conditions for amalgamation carries with it the stipulation of the appointment being a persona grain with the President. undertaking like the Engineering Co. and in supercomion of Major Nathan, the General Manager, under whom the Company has altained its present pre-emident Louition. The drift of events will therefore be keenly watched and by none other more than those who have invested their capital in the anterprise whose prospects loom so largely in

THE TRADE COMMISSION

ARRANGING THE DETAILS.

Reuter's Service to the Chine Mail.) LONDON, April 10.

Reuter learns that the Royal Commissioners who are to enquire into the trade resources of the Empire wil meet in London shortly to arrange shooded as a result of the breaking of details of work and the order of the visits to the different Colonies.

It is expected that Australia will be first visited, the tour to occupy about three years. A report will then be prepared, probably in London.

The Imperial and Colonial Governments will share the expenses, and the scope and components of the Commission will remain as decided at last year's Imperial Conference, when India and the Crown Colonies were unrepresented, and as far as is known there have been no modifications in these respects.

FISCAL QUESTIONS BARRED.

It transpires from statements made in Parliament to-night that the terms of reference of the Trade Commissioners will follow the lines of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's resolution at the Imperial Conference, with a slight amendment excluding fiscal questions therefrom.

The terms of reference were drafted by Mr Asquith and Mr Harcourt with the concurrence of the Dominions. [Note-Sir Wilfrid Laurier's resolution at the Imperial Conference last year was to the effect that His Majesty should be asked to appoint a Royal Commission representing the United Kingdom and the Dominions " with a view of investigating and reporting up n the natural resources of each part of the Empire represented. the development attained and attainable. and the facilities for production, manufacture and distribution, the trade of each part with the others and with the outside world, the food and raw material requirements of each, and the sources thereof available; to what extent, if any, the trade the conditions on which Turkey is between each of the different parts has been affected by dristing legislation in each, either beneficially or otherwise. The resolution was adopted with an addition suggested by Mr Harcourt to the effect that "and by what methods, con sistent with the existing fiscal policy of each part, the trade of each part with the others may be improved and extended."-

HOTEL MANAGER ASSAULTED

Mr Schmidt, the manager of the Grand Totel, was assaulted at about half past seven this morning by a coolie in his emloy. It seems that he had occ remonstrate with the coolie, who was making unnecessary noise by sweeping. Mr Schmidt being afraid that some of the guests would be disturbed. The cooling apparently resented being spoken to, and without marning, struck the manager on he head with a brush. He then seized table-knife and with it inflicted a wound n Mr Schmidt's forehead, pecessitating the insertion of two stitches.

Before Mr Melbourne at the Magistracy this afternoon a goolie stated that he saw the complainant and the defendant quarrolling, during which he noticed the complainant strike the defendant. An official at the Government Civil Hospital gave evidence that the complainant went to that institution to have the injury to his forchesd dressed. The wound was about 1 sarinch in length.

Other evidence was given Alter which the magistrate dismissed the cies.

SIR HENRY MAY

The following letter signed ! Anothe Old China Hand" appears in Truth under date of March 60h .- While in your article on Sir Henry May (whose promotion to the first-class Governorship of Hongkong after only one year's previous service Governor at Fiji has aroused such uniavourable comment) you did not question his qualifications, you could easily have done so, and perhaps a reference to another "Old China Hand" may be as illuminating as one to your correspondent in your issue of February 28th or to Who's Who."

It is true that Sir Henry May (as he prefers to be called, not Sir Francis) has had thirty-one years' experience in Hong. kong, and probably does know every resident, British or Chicago, there, as his defonder states; but has he used that knowledge for the betterment of either the British or Chinese residents when he was Colomial Secretary or Acting Governor? I am sure there are few 'in Drugs obtainable, and have the know " who can my " yes" to that question. To him Bongkong owed the An experience of many years. shorteighted and unwise policy of the laws relating to prostitutes, which scattered them all over the colony and made them a public scandal throughout the Far East to him belonged the oredit of defeating the Chinese servants a thing notoriously badly needed, and one which the colony has suffered from the lack of ever since. As Acting Governor he so 'ar furthered British interests as seriously to impair the value of two of its most important branches through his policy of invariably showing favouritism to "Cadet" officials.

Sir Henry may perhaps be the man for Hongkong during the disturbance Chins, as your critic thinks, but that would only be because he seems to be in sympathy with Chinese officialdom. was he who drove certain Portuguese clerks out of the service-who by long and faithful service had risen to positions of trust-and replaced them by Chinese, in whom no faith or trust could be reposed. The last case of this kind, I may rap over the knuckles from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, who telegraphed ordering, the immediate rejustatement of the clerk in question. It is interesting to note that while he thus impaired the careful to retain the services of all the senior non-Chinese in his own and all other Departments presided over by a "Cadet"

Sir Henry was undoubtedly popular with the horse-racing and yachting part of the community, in the Colony but not so with the Colonial officials, who were not in favour of his Russian methods of govern ment. Lady May is so charming and generally beloved that she may reconcile many to her busband's return to Hongkong; but it is rather amusing to read in the columns of the Morning Post devoted to Colonial Intelligence words to the effect that great satisfaction is expressed in Hong kong at the appointment, etc., etc. This is obviously an inspired reply to you original paragraph, as there can be no possible means of knowing in London what the local feeling may be. No one would pay several pounds to cable to this effect except one who thereby "protests too much to prove its truth. But even if Sir Henry May is popular, is popularity to promote a man rather than performance?
